Des MoinesThis statement is for Calendar Year 2010.Check if this is an amended statement. ☐

This statement is required to cover the calendar year preceding the year the report is due.

General instructions: Complete each of Parts A, B, and C below. Attach additional pages if necessary.

Part A. Business, Occupation, or Profession. List each business, occupation, or profession in which you were engaged during the previous calendar year, including the nature of each unless already apparent. If you were not employed by anyone other than the judicial branch and for the position held as disclosed above, check here. ☐

Part B. Income sources. In the categories below list each source of income from which you received more than $1000 in gross annual income during the previous calendar year. The amount or value of the holding or the amount of income produced is not required to be listed. A source is reportable if the gross income produced was subject to federal or state income tax during the reporting period.

"Sources of income" includes those sources which are held jointly with one or more persons and which in total generate more than $1000 of income. "Jointly" means the ownership of the income source is undivided among the owners and all owners have one and the same interest in an undivided possession, each with full rights of use and enjoyment of the total income. Sources of income that are co-owned but with ownership interests that are legally divisible, without full rights of use or enjoyment of the total income, need not be reported unless the person's portion of the income from that source exceeds $1000.

Do not report income received solely by your spouse or other family members.

1. Securities. Identify the nature of the business of any company in which you owned securities that generated over $1000 in gross income during the preceding calendar year. Securities owned in a mutual fund are indicated by identifying "mutual fund" as the source. Income generated by multiple holdings in a single company is deemed received from a single source.
